Civil Servants' Right to Air their views on General Political and Economic issues

*74 SHRI CHIMANBHAI MEHTA:
SHRI G. G. SWELL:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Civil Servants have a right to publicly air their views on the issues not related to their department but related to general political and economic issues;

(b) wnether the bureaucrats are supposed to carry out Honourable Ministers' order even if that order violates rules and regulations; and

(c) whether Government have come across such incidents when Honourable Minister crosses the limit of rules and regulations in his dealing with subordinate officers?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SMT. MARGARET ALVA): (a) In terms of the Conduct Rules a Government servant is prohibited from making a public statement which has the effect of an adverse criticism of a current or recent policy of the Central Govt.or a State Government.

(b) The Conduct Rules prescribed that no Government servant shall in the performance of his official duty, or in the exercise of powers conferred on him, act otherwise' than in his best judgement except where he is acting under the direction of his official superior. Existing instructions also provide that if any officer receives oral instructions from the Minister or from his personal staff and the orders are not in accordance with the norms, rules, regulations, or procedures he should seek further clear orders from the Secretary or the Head of the Department as the case may be, about the line of action to be taken, stating clearly that the oral instructions are not in accordance with-the rules, regulations, norms or procedure.

(c) No such incidents have come to notice.
